

Arabic (ARAB)

Courses

ARAB-101. Arabic I. 3 Hours.

Development of basic skills in listening, speaking, reading and writing. Cultural appreciation.

ARAB-102. Arabic II. 3 Hours.

Continuation of ARAB-101.

Prerequisite: ARAB-101 with a minimum grade of D.

ARAB-203. Arabic III. 3 Hours.

Arabic III is the continuation of the sequence of Arabic I and Arabic II. Students develop proficiency of Modern Standard Arabic in listening, speaking, reading and writing at the Intermediate Low level, using Arab cultures as content for the development of these skills.

Requirement: must have course prerequisite or by placement exam

Prerequisite: ARAB-102 with a minimum grade of C.